It was expected that on Tuesday the Five County Extension Act would be acted upon. It was, however with other bills relating to taxes, referred to the. Sub-Committee on Taxation. Under an amendment to the Constitution a general tax law must be provided by this Legislature and these bills relating to the subject should be considered by the Sub- 755 BROAD STREET. Committee on Taxation. The object of the reference was that the subject might be properly considered and a law prepared that would be satisfactory to the from 3 to 5, P. M. people of the whole State.

Henry C. Bowen has spoken on the Beecher question : not exactly a mouthutterance, but such a reply as a vigorous mule might make with his heels in response to punchings with a pitchfork. Mr. Bowen defends his silence in the past and there is a grim sarcasm in his complaint that whilom he was muzzled for talking too much, now they are prodding him for keeping his mouth shut. He makes astounding declarations CHARLES M. LOCKWOOD, of his knowledge of his pastor's guilt, and will testify to the essential facts before a proper tribunal, but declines to do so before his present inquisitors. His statement concludes as follows:

I solemnly give it as my unwavering opinion, in view of all the the facts and evidence presented to THE MONTCLAIR LIBRARY. me, that the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, without the awful crimes of adultery, perjury, and hypocrisy. is open daily from 3 to 6 P. M., This I say again and before the bar of this committee, is my deliberate opinion, and I may be permitand with no other than a sincere desire to do my duty faithfully to God and to man, to the church nvited to visit the Rooms and to become suband to the world.

A week has passed since this solemn averment was made, but nothing has MITH E. PERRY been done to bring Mr. Bowen before a REAL ESTATE AGENT AND AUCTIONEY 4, "proper tribunal." Merely dropping him will hardly do. He has said too Bloomfield. much or not enough.
